Business Summary

This is the ultimate web site business: high volume, easy to run (only a few hours a day), great profit margins along with big growth. If you ever dreamed about being an internet guru, now is your chance. The business can be operated from anywhere in the world, since you have nothing to ship. All pet supply products are shipped directly from the distributor, with the web site label on the merchandise. (The site owners carry no inventory.) The site offers terrific prices, because there is no overhead. Even with the great prices the profit margin is a wonderful 32% plus shipping and handling. This is a win-win situation. The big chain stores can not compete. (The chain's overhead, rent & employees, take a big bite out of profits.) If you have the financials and you are a good administrator, this is the business for you. Call me right now, Neil Meislin, 631 586-4674.
